| 1) Industry the key, Integrity the lock, wealth & fame the treasure. | | 2 |
| 2) Knowledge is not acquired but by attention and application. | | 2 |
| 3) Learn prudence, one vice is more expensive than many virtues. | | 2 |
| 1) It is less painful to learn in youth than to be ignorant in age. | | 2 |
| 2) Youth be temperate, in manhood just, in old age prudent. | | 2 |
| 3) A young man idle, an old man needy, stoke like rust corrupts. | | 2 |
| 1) No evil action can be well done, guard well thy thoughts. | | B |
| 2) Let prudence on thy pleasures wait, flee the vicious. | | B |
| 3) Industry gives comfort, idleness & profusion leads to peraxry. | | B |
