

Scholarship Application
For the TCC Annual Meeting
Birmingham, Alabama, October 17-21, 2019

Scholarships have been generously funded by the TCC Board of Directors for graduate students or young professionals working in the decorative arts, archaeology, historic preservation, or related ceramics fields who wish to attend the TCC Annual Meeting in Birmingham, Alabama on October 17-21, 2019. These scholarships cover the cost of registration as well as a stipend to assist with travel expenses. Recipients will be asked to submit a report about the event, to include a synopsis of the lectures, within 30 days of the conclusion of the meeting. For more information, please email the TCC Secretary, Brenda Hornsby Heindl at hornsby.heindl@gmail.com.

To apply, please provide the following information:

Applicant's name:

Home address:

E-mail address:

Phone number:

Institutional or Club Affiliation:

Title (if applicable):

Please provide a letter of interest (1-page maximum) stating your professional or academic status and the reasons why attendance at the TCC Annual Meeting would benefit your work or studies. Be sure to include one academic or professional letter of recommendation. Please submit your application form, letter of interest, and a current CV/Resume by mail or email to:

Brenda Hornsby Heindl
TCC Secretary
325 North Asheboro Street,
Liberty, NC 27298

hornsby.heindl@gmail.com

Individuals writing letters of recommendation should also send them directly to Brenda Hornsby Heindl via regular mail or email.

Deadline for submission is July 1, 2019. Notifications of scholarships will be made by August 1, 2019.