Collecting 18th & 19th Century British Transferware

TRANSFERWARE
COLLECTORS CLUB

www.transferwarecollectorsclub.org

Incorporated in 1998, the Transferware Collectors Club is a forum for sharing information and interests among collectors, dealers, scholars, and those who simply appreciate the beauty and technical proficiency of British transferware.

We focus on British wares produced from 1760 to 1900 and welcome collectors, dealers and researchers interested in any of the various patterns, colors and motifs of transferware made during this period.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING ABOUT THE TRANSFERWARE COLLECTORS CLUB

Transferware Pattern Database helps a New Member:

"I can't believe how many patterns you have in the Database! I spent a couple of hours this afternoon and found most of the pattern information I've been chasing on the Internet for the last four days! I'm really pleased with all the information I've gleaned already. I'll look for the Annual Meeting registration information in April. Sounds like it would be a good vacation for my husband and me! Cheers!"

—Susan (New Member)

How the Message Board helped a Web Site Visitor:

"I was able to find your web address for the Message Board by doing a Google search. And WOW! am I impressed. Thank you for your help with the identification of our pieces. You just don't know how much it means to me and my team!!! The identification of the pieces of a plate had been a mystery to us for the past couple of years. We never thought we'd be able to find out where and what they came from."

—Alana, USF Africana Heritage Project
